HIT RESET AND TAKE CONTROL

Running a profitable and compliant dental practice today is more difficult than ever before. Zirc and the Academy of Chairside Assisting (ACA) have partnered together offering innovative solutions for being highly organized and efficient while practicing proper infection control. RESET your practice and get a fresh start with dental efficiency.

We come to you. We get you organized.

Could chairside look more appealing?
Missing items during procedures?
Too much time restocking materials?

RESET
We come to you. We get you organized.

Disorganization costs time and money. Because time is money, every moment you spend looking for dental materials and coping with interruptions takes you away from what is most important—the patient. Having one of our DENTAL EFFICIENCY EXPERTS come into your practice can reduce stress, increase productivity and meet infection control guidelines.

WHY DO YOU NEED AN DENTAL EFFICIENCY EXPERT?

- We get the job done quickly - self-implementing takes a long time and could end up costing more money
- Increases team acceptance for change
- Your instruments and materials are managed for optimal organization
- Team is educated and earns 4 CE credits
- Complementary workbook for inventory control and supply ordering
- Free enrollment in our Academy of Chairside Assisting Online CE
- Up to 2 hours of FREE assistance AFTER installation for further training or questions

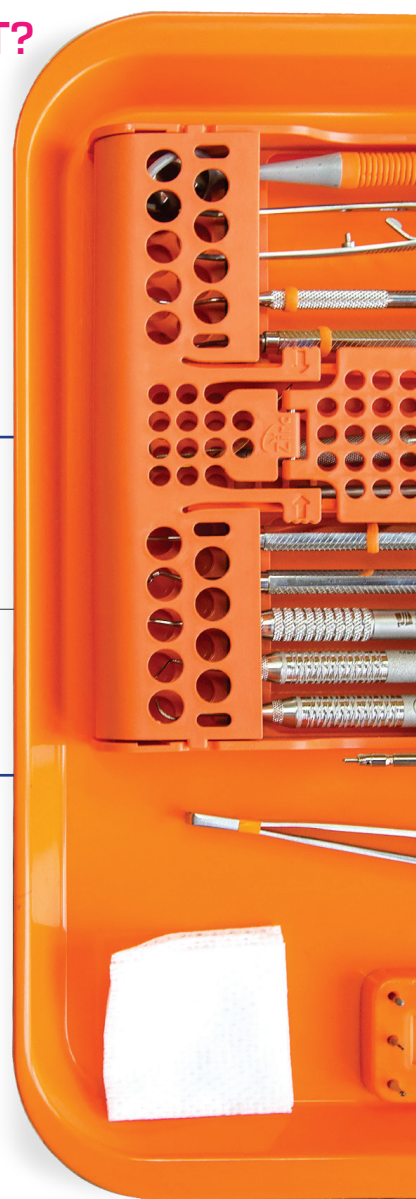

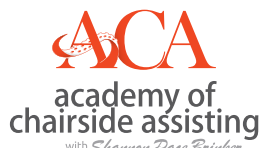

HOW DOES IT WORK?
